Dedication

The Bobcat Annual Staff wish to dedicate the 1956-57 Bobcat to our football coach, Mr. Tom Weede.

In his first year of teaching at the Houghton Lake High School, the students have found him very inspiring and helpful.

In dedicating this annual to Mr. Weede, we are sincere in expressing our appreciation for all that he has done; not only in bringing us a successful football season, but he has added much enjoyment to our school year.

Football

Houghton Lake has good reason to be proud of their "Bobcats." They led the conference through most all the year, until they tied Gladwin in the Homecoming game, and were defeated by West Branch in the last game of the season. Nevertheless, our boys ended up in second place, one to be proud of.

Phil Kemp was chosen for All-Conference, playing halfback. Chuck Schmidutz, end, and Harold Mosanko, halfback, were awarded Honorable Mention. Arnold Goupil and Ken Baumgartner were team captains. Arnold Goupil was named Honorable Mention in All-State. Many thanks to the team and Mr. Weede for the wonderful job they did.

HOUGHTON LAKE'S BOBCATS GET READY FOR ROSCOMMON

... the leaders of the Northeastern Michigan Conference with a 4-0 record, will be host to Roscommon tonight at Houghton Lake in the top league game. Roscommon has a 3-1 record. Standing (left to right): David Lee (52); Pat Marts (22); Howard

Holloway (40); Dick Rochan (20); Phil Kemp (44); Arnie Goupil (54), and coach Walt Drog. Lee is the team's top scorer with a 17-point average in three games, followed by Holloway with 13.5 in four games and Goupil, 13 in three games.
